

Parkview

Prague 4 Pankrác, Pujmanové 10a

The Parkview office project, designed by world-renowned architect Richard Meier, offers modern office space in the attractive location of Prague's Pankrác. Thanks to its excellent accessibility from the metro station, the D1 highway and the City ring road, it is an ideal place for business. Nearby you will find a wide range of shops and services that will make your work routine easier. In addition, you can look forward to impressive views of Prague from the balconies and roof terrace.

Parkview is not only modern, but also environmentally friendly. The materials used are environmentally friendly and help create a healthy working environment. Efficient LED lighting with motion and occupancy sensors minimizes energy consumption. In addition, rainwater is collected and used to irrigate the garden and green roof, which is accessible to all tenants. Overall, it is a modern and sustainable project that meets the highest standards of office space.
