Prague 1 Nové Město, Na Poříčí 24-26

The Palác Archa, designed by the famous Czech architect Josef Gočár, is a listed building on the UNESCO list. This remarkable building from the Rondocubist period consists of 4 buildings A, B, C and D, which are interconnected and offer up to 26,500 sqm of office and commercial space in the center of Prague. In 2009, the project underwent a significant reconstruction, which ensured the high quality of Class A premises.
