

River Garden Business centrum

Prague 8 Karlín, Rohanské nábřeží 23

The River Garden business center is in the rapidly developing Karlín district in the center of Prague, in a modern office complex. It is home to a large community of companies operating in a wide range of fields, from consulting firms, through banks, IT to the headquarters of FMCG companies. Thanks to its convenient location, you can easily walk to the city center or cycle along the river. To travel to other parts of Prague, you can use excellent connections by public transport or by car.

The River Garden office building offers plenty of natural light and a comfortable working environment with a view of the Vltava River. The surrounding parks are a great place to relax. Karlín is also known for its many quality restaurants, shops and services, and its romantic streets and squares, where original Art Nouveau buildings mix with modern architecture.
